

A Rough Night at the Dog & Bastard

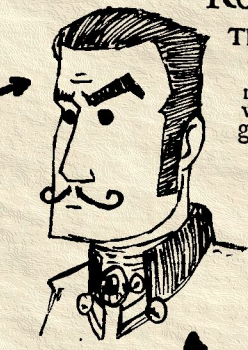

by Kelvin Green

A horrendous storm has swept in, forcing the player-characters to take shelter at the nearest coaching inn, the Dog & Bastard. They find themselves sharing the establishment with a number of other unfortunate travellers, and already tensions are evident. It's going to be a long night...

Baron Roosterlick

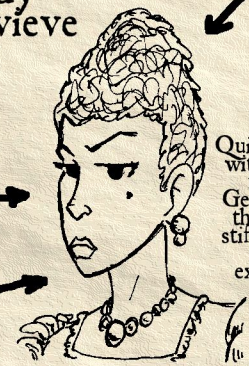

The Baron is a ruthless but honourable man, with a weakness for gambling and apple pies.

The Baron and the Lady are old flames.

Lady Genevieve

Quick-witted and with a fondness for pranks, Genevieve finds the aristocracy stifling and dull. She is an excellent shot.

Balotelli

Outwardly jolly and pleasant, Balotelli is one of the most cruel and ruthless assassins in the land, and cares only for money.

Balotelli has been hired to assassinate Genevieve.

Balotelli is attracted to Parletothraxus.

Septimus Drake

Drake and the Baron have met before and dislike each other.

Drake is hunting a demon that he knows is able to change its shape, but is unaware of the demon's current disguise.

Parletothraxus

A demon in human guise, and oddly enough, a really nice bloke. He just wants to be left alone to have a saucy evening with Lady Genevieve.

Genevieve and Parletothraxus are having an affair.

Pendrange recognises Drake and thinks he's been discovered.

Bariusz works for Drake.

Drake is an agent of the Crown, dedicated to tracking down all manner of criminals, cultists, mutants and other undesirables. He is quite lonely and would love to have a real friend.

Oskar thinks Drake is after him!

Brothers.

Bariusz Buttlichen

Shy and somewhat resentful of his brother's confidence, Bariusz is having second thoughts about working for Drake.

Oskar Buttlichen
Also known as "The Snuffler", a notorious thief. Charming but secretly paranoid.

Would serve and worship Parletothraxus if he recognised him.

Occipitus Pendrange

An unsanctioned wizard and demonic cultist whose goal is to destroy the world. Well-spoken and funny and with a tendency to stare.

