

<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-aa/5.0>

10ft

ZyEu

The Amulet of Cadrium rest atop a dias emitting a soft golden glow. A poisonous gas emits from the dias, filling the surrounding space if someone lifts it from the dias.

Amulet of Cadrium - always points to most valuable gem within 100ft. Is able to emit a bright golden light from the gem within, 3 times per day.

Any loud noise, or action against the ceiling or walls results in the area collapsing on the area with boulders, rocks and debris

A large beast, with a thick jagged mouth rests atop a raised rocky platform. It is surrounded with bones and torn up bodies. It keeps an ear, and feels the ground for any that approach nearby, and seems aggressive and hungry.

A nearby backpack contains climbing equipment

Bright Ruby carved in the shape of a diamond

Events

- A slight quake occurs and rubble falls on the party.
- Your rope begins to fray while climbing, find safety before it snaps.
- A dwarven pectre rises from the nearby rock, it appears angry at the trespass.
- A vein of precious metal glints amongst the rocky cavern wall.

An admantine Warhammer sits atop a richly engrave stone throne. If it is removed from the throne the Ghost of a dwarven king rises from the thone and attacks, focused on the one holding the warhammer.

Throne Room

Boulders block the way forward, but a slight golden light can be seen through the cracks

Beer Hall

- 3 bottles old whiskey
- 13 gold
- Silver Drinking Stein

Old Library

A richly engraved stone door blocks the path with a hard, fine lock that looks like an amulet would fit within. The door is trapped and releases a petrification gas on any who tamper with the lock.

Diamond shaped hole in the middle of the pillar opens a path below when the ruby is placed within

An Earth Elemental (protects the glowing portal. The portal seems to go to another plane and is causing the rift to grow. Once destroyed the rift begins to collapse, the party has 1 minute to get out or risk being trapped as the caverns all collapse.